What's for Snack—Strawberry Salsa and Baked Cinnamon Chips

INGREDIENTS:

Strawberry Salsa

- 1 lb fresh strawberries, chopped
- 2 whole kiwi, peeled and chopped
- 1/2 a lime, juiced

Baked Cinnamon Chips

- 4 whole wheat tortillas
- 1 teaspoon unrefined coconut oil, melted
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon and 1 teaspoon raw coconut sugar in shaker bottle

DIRECTIONS:

- Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
- Wash & chop fruit, mix it together in a bowl, and add the lime juice. (If it needs a little sweetness you can add a teaspoon of honey or pure maple syrup, but the fruit will usually be sweet enough on it's own).
- Brush both sides of the tortillas with melted coconut oil. Stack them all together and cut into 8 triangles.
- Arrange the triangles in a single layer on a cookie sheet lined with foil. If they overlap, they won't crisp as well.
- Sprinkle each triangle lightly with the cinnamon mixture. Flip them over and sprinkle the other side too.
- Bake in the preheated oven for 8-12 minutes. Rotate the pan halfway through, and make sure you check the chips often so that they don't burn. They are finished when the edges get dry and crispy. The center will still be slightly flexible, but they will crisp even more as they cool.
- Allow to cool slightly and test the texture. If they aren't quite crisp enough return to the oven for 2-3 minutes.
- Once they are mostly cool, remove from the pan and enjoy with your fresh salsa.

Keep leftovers of salsa in the fridge and eat quickly, after about 24 hours the fruit will breakdown and get soupy. Keep leftover chips in a sealed Ziplock bag.
